Dean's Christmas Message

Another Christmas is upon us and, at the College, we are allowing ourselves to be a little more optimistic than we have been for the past two Christmases. The beauty and power of the Christmas message is not that everything is made sweet and lovely by the birth of a baby into a loving family. The message which Gabriel brought to Mary was, 'Do not be afraid...you will bear a son and you will name him Jesus...he will be called Son of God'. It is nothing less than the promise of 'God with us', God as 'Immanuel'. This is what we cling to in the Land of the Holy One, at all times but especially in these days when the situation is still far from what it should be and that we long for it to be. We know that many people, the friends of the College, have been with us through these days of suffering and are with us now in prayer and Christian solidarity as an imperfect and incomplete ceasefire in Gaza potentially moves towards the establishment of peace with justice.

The improving direction of progress means that we are receiving bookings again for our study pilgrimages and all the staff of the College are excited about that. We are so enthusiastic about the prospect of welcoming pilgrims back to the beauty of St George's College and Cathedral grounds. We are keen to offer once again the transformative experience of pilgrimage in Israel/Palestine which informs and revitalises faith in such a profound way. The schedules for 2026 and 2027 are published and can be seen here....

We always make sure that our pilgrimages enable encounter with Palestinian Christians, the Living Stones and with the wider community so that the realities of life in these lands can be truly seen. This aspect of our pilgrimages will be strengthened so that those who are in the forefront of the renewal of the College's ministry (meaning you) will return home far better informed about the realities here which have featured in news cycles but so often misses the ground-level realities.

The best thing that any friends, old and new, can do to support the vulnerable Christians of the Land of the Holy One is to 'Come over and help us' (as St Paul's vision of the man of Macedonia challenged him in Acts 16:9). Booking a study pilgrimage at St George's whether you come soon or further away would be such a great encouragement to us.

Gifts From Other Countries

Gifts from other countries may be made directly to the College by clicking here.

However you chose to give, please know that your donations are appreciated.

Other ways to support St. George's College

Including the St. George's College in your will, trust or as a beneficiary is a meaningful way to continue to financially back St. George's College. St. George's has been able to keep its facilities up-to-date and modern because of individuals who had the foresight to include St. George's College in their estate plans.

Donors in the United States may receive tax benefits by donating their Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs) to the North American Committee of St. George's College. Consult with your tax advisor for tax guidance.

For information on making a planned gift please contact Dean Richard Sewell at dean@sgcjerusalem.org or in North America contact Laura Simmons, Executive Director of the North American Committee for St. George's College at execdirnac@gmail.com.
